Head Master's Message

As you look back on the images of the 2015-2016 school year at BCS and remember all of the stories there will be a flood of personal memories that are triggered. Our community has a house system that develops identity and loyalty that lasts well beyond your years at Moulton Hill. The clubs, classes, teams, activities, and unscheduled moments in time that you shared together over the past year have been quite masterfully collected in this book to keep you ever connected to the experiences we all shared in the community of BCS over the past year. I hope this book will serve you as a reference book of names and memories, but more meaningfuly, a personal diary of a happy time amongst a deeply connected group of friends who were working and playing hard together.

Having just completed my first year at BCS, this book will always remind me of many unique 'firsts' that I encountered that will forever draw memories for all of us back to BCS. The long winding trail up the side of Mount Oford and then all of us huddled together for Mr. Maxwell to fly by in a plane and capture our triumphant wave from the top. Through house parties, competitions and the evolution of the bonds that define our house system, I learned why droves of Smith, Williams, McNaughton, Grier (North and South), Gillard, Glass and Ross alumni remain loyal to their house years after graduation as they did in the competitions of Winter Carnival. Anyone who stood on the fields in a wool suit with a driving rain in their face for two hours to achieve a masterfully executed cadet inspection will never forget the very wet day in May, when you achieved collective perfection - the impressive end product of a test of unselfishness, discipline and teamwork. Pride, laughter, trust, friendship, love and the sheer joy of comraderie - the ongoing gift of this book will be revisiting all of these emotions over and over like you were walking through this school year again.

Together, we encounter a word - kvell - which translates to an extraordinary level of pride that is achieved from appreciating the accomplishments of others. For me, I will always look back at this book and be filled with kvell from the many, many beautiful moments of community that collectively built the memories of the year. Congratulations on writing a wonderful chapter in the history of your school and I hope you revisit and enjoy the memories of the 2015-2016 school year often!

It was a full yearin Glass House, both with the number of girls in the house and with all of the things we have accomplished. It has been many years since Glass House was full, and we were lucky enough to have a 42 unique and wonderful girls filing the house this year. We were welcomed in September to a beautifully renovated house and this set the tone for the year. A very special bond was created in Glass this year, thanks largely to a common area that was welcoming and always full of fun and excitement.
I have been the houseparent of Glass House for many years and have been privileged to work with many amazing young women over the years, and this group is no exception. Thank you all for the memories, laughs and conversations. To those who have moved on, you will be missed and remember Glass House will always be your second home, and to those of you back for another year, let's make it a great one!

Having a senior and junior house together presents unique opportunities to forge unlikely friendships, create bonds that will last forever and help instill a sense of responsibility, compassion and genuine concern for others. Ross Girls are remarkably involved in the fabric of the school and lose nothing by not being boarders; in fact, our school spirit is unsurpassed for such a small house! It is a privilege and a pleasure to watch these extraordinary young women grow, mature and gain the confidence and skills they will need to face the journey ahead.

Ross Boys

The boys from Ross House are day students, but they are as involved in the life of the school as our boarders. They are leaders both academically and athletically. Our house spirit is clearly evident during Carnival activities and any inter-house competition. The house is divided into Junior and Senior groups. The boys from Ross House get to enjoy all of the opportunities BCS has to offer, but get to sleep in their own beds at night.

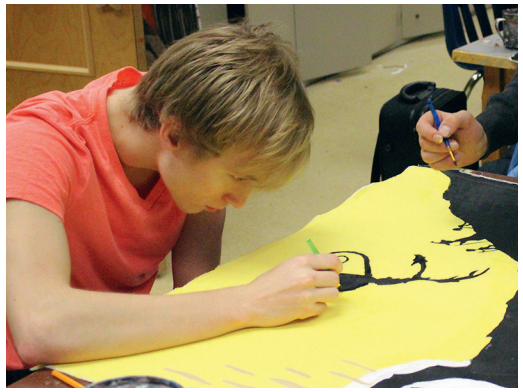

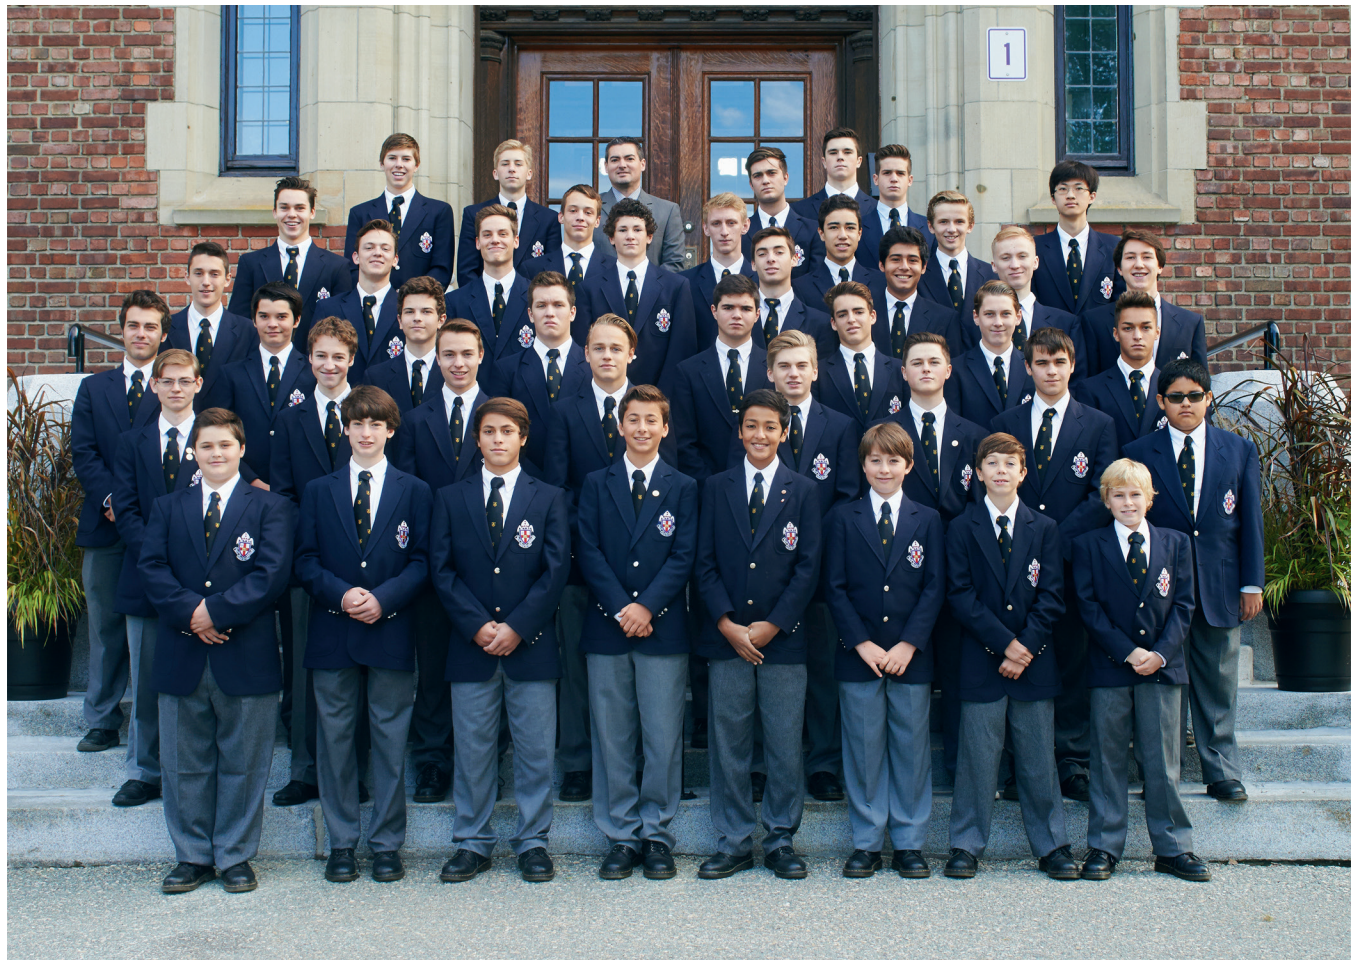

014-015 217817-1.indd 14 8/2/2016 12:21:33 PM

This year has been successful for the Ross Boys. Their competitive nature in academics, athletics, and extra-curricular activities has contributed greatly to the school. They were led by a strong group of House Captains which made all events run smoothly and were tremendous at communicating with me from Mountain Day to Track and Field. Each one of the Ross Boys made a significant contribution to the house and wish them all the best in the coming year.

Williams

Williams House was special this year. Not because we didn't have any form 7s in the house but it was special cause of the great spirit that our house could be proud of. Every student, Teacher on Duty and our greatest Houseparent contributed a lot to make the house better each day. In the end this effort was awarded by the tasty house dinners where everybody enjoyed the time with the closest people. And yeah, these people were the closest cause we lived in the same rooms and house, seeing each other almost every day.

Not only was the house special, but also every student in it. Theo who listened to French rap all the time, Nicolas who was always very kind and nice with everyone, were in the same room enjoying the opportunity to speak French. Then the best hockey player ever, Joshua, with Ludovic, who liked to have fun with form 5 students, were trying to find out who is the true dominator in their room. Bobby, the funniest and the cutest cook in the world, and Eason, a very athletic basketball player, were enjoying time in a quiet and calm room. Two real best friends in Williams were Rida, a photographer whose flash would blind, and Javier, a Spanish guy who was slowly turning into a Mexican person. The gamer, Blake, was a true soulmate of Avi. This hilarious Mexican brought many funny moments to Williams, and it is very hard to imagine the year without him. Nikita who was always outside spending time with his girlfriend, and Daniel, a man who has incredible amount of energy stored in his body, were very happy to live in the house with the best rooms. And in the end three single room friends, William, Huakun, and Amir, who would come to each other's room and have nice conversations going.

All the students were supervised by awesome people, Mr. Rae who was truly missed by all the house members in the end of the school year. Mr. Byrne, our true advisor for serious choices and a man with who everyone would talk to have a nice conversation. Mr. Szathmary, who was willing to help with Math all the time. Colin, whose games collected all the people from the house in the common room. They were not only supervisors but people who wished the best for our students and guided them.

Most importantly everyone in the house was thankful to have awesome Mr. D (Dandurand) as our houseparent. Being a houseparent is a hard job and we all admire his desire to take care of us. Maybe from time to time it was very tough but all Williams House family members know that you made us better than we were when we first arrived at BCS.

The moment that happened in Williams with all the people mentioned above will always stay in our hearts and will be remembered as the best days in our lives. We all hope that Williams will continue to be the way it was in the school year of 2015-2016.

016-017 217817-1.indd 16 8/2/2016 12:21:49 PM

Williams had the privilege of counting on many returning Williams boys and several incoming youngsters, thus we started the year with a single rooky. The main task was to set them in Williams mode: time set, shoes off, make your bed and do your dishes. We were successful. Again this year we maintain our tuck reputation and we celebrated birthdays. There was some cooking too. The housecaptains were supportive of our TOD team and we can foresee another good year next year.

Thank you all for this great year.

To all the guys of Smith,
You have been an awesome group of young men and I am glad to have been a part of your lives this year. As this is my last year as Houseparent I find the bonds that we have made together particularly meaningful to me. In my 8 years here at BCS over 100 boys have passed through Smith, and I remember all of them. But remember gentlemen of Smith, you are now part of a much longer tradition than my mere 8 years! I have met former Smith boys who were here in the 1980s, 70s, 60s, 50s, 40s, and even the 1930s! They all expressed to me their special fondness for Smith, their home here at BCS. I will always carry something of what it is to be part of Smith House with me wherever I go and hope you will too.
Best of luck in the future and I will miss you all,
Daz

Grier North is a senior boys residence, conviently close to the main schoolhouse and adjacent to the tennis courts and football field. Our duty team consists of Ms. Rowell, Mr. Brandon, Mr. Morimoto, Mr. Paternoster and me, Andrew Hopkins. Ms. Rowell is a science and mathematics teacher, Mr. Brandon is an arts and ethics teacher, Mr. Morimoto is an experienced Resident Assistant and Mr. Paternoster is the Assistant Houseparent.
In Grier North we try to balance the rigours of boarding life with a calm family atmosphere whenever possible. We like the boys to feel at home, and we look for opportunities to find common interests in order to bring our students together. I live on campus, adjacent to Grier North, with my family; I have 4 children, the eldest 2 have alreade graduated from BCS. My son Jonathan is a prefect in Form 7 and graduates this year. My youngest daughter has yet to join BCS.

Once upon a time, on a beautiful campus, was a junior boarding house, called Greir South. Even though it was aged and weathering, it was always full of life and laughter. In this crazy house lived 24 energetic boys. Some were big, some were small and some were just silly. To give you an idea...

Chang: "I think we have mass class"
Little Daniel: "I have a question?"
Fuge: "Stooopp!!!"
Evan: Getaway guy, for Gatings
Japes: Cailloux
Miguel: Master of Preps
Big J: Cutest chipmunk
Arsenault: Little Fevzi
Estaban: "Mi pequeno!"
Rhino: The frat guy
Cristo: "Peace and Love, no fight!"
Tom Lee: " Oh my god"
Big Daniel: Always with Big Alex
Big Alex: Always with Big Daniel
Georgy: Always yelling
Tree: Underestimates himself, Rossi
Ngiyen: "Raptors suck!"
Justin: Never stop dancing!
Yuqi: Does Yuqi live here?
Jan: Jan the man
Moran: Always stick handling during prep
Harny: 3rd Team all star
Peter: Mad at getting 98 on a test
Azul: Wakes up at 7:50 and takes 20 minutes to do his hair.

Shaggy (Tyler): Raggy wants some Scooby snacks!
Joe: "Guys, I'm doing my job"
Mr. Bray: "15 Minutes!"
Mrs. Bray: "Put some clothes on"
Andy (Mr. St-Amant): 12, 1234 noich noich noich.

Grier South

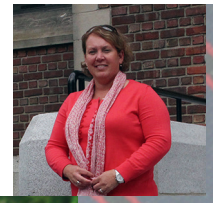

024-025 217817-1.indd 24 8/2/2016 12:23:12 PM

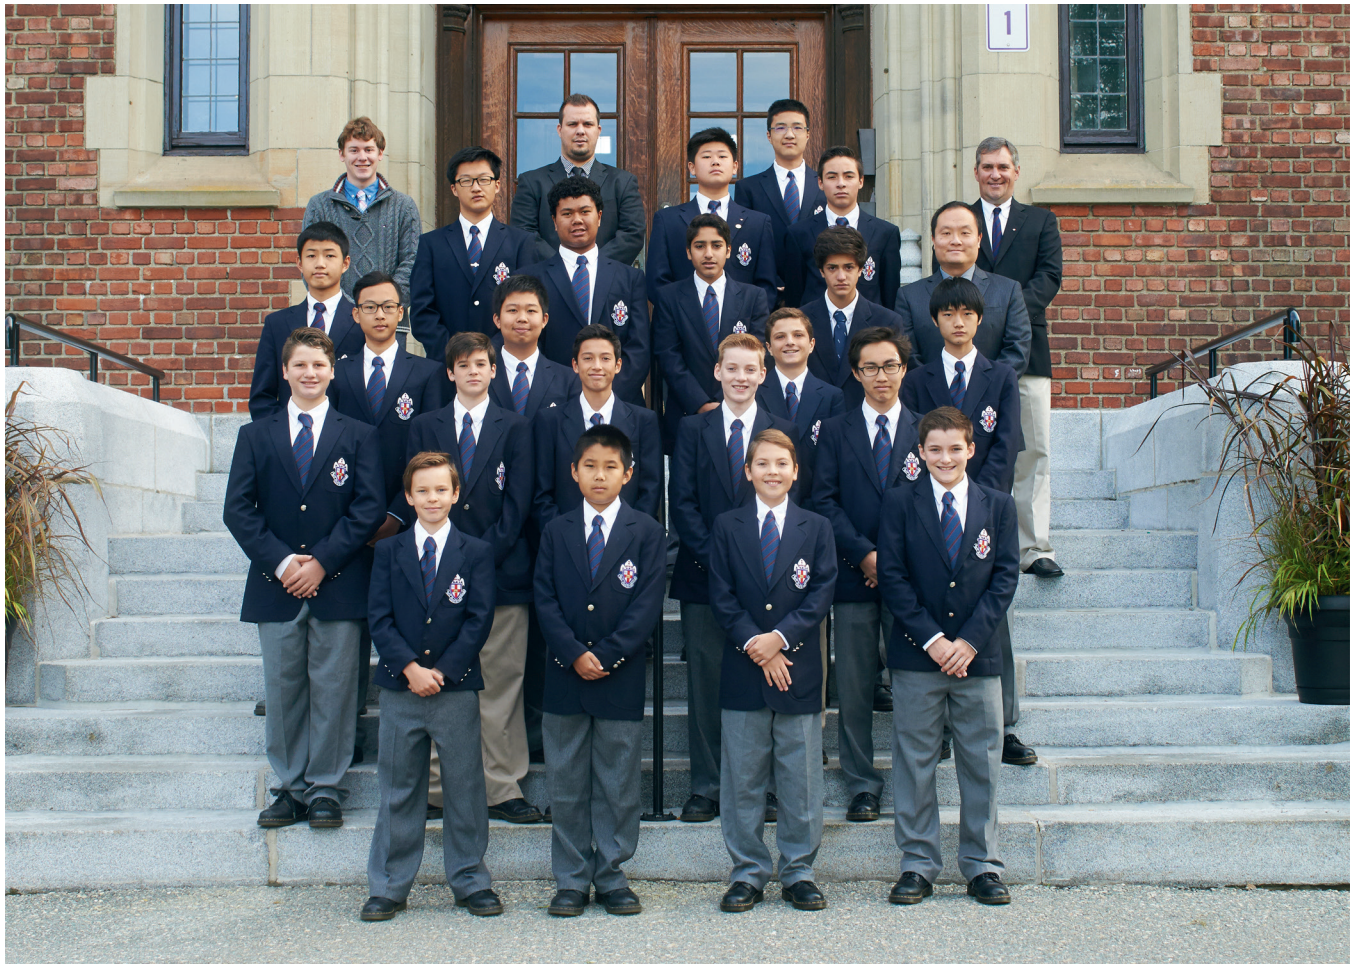

We will have many fond memories of the 2015-16 year in Grier South. With boys from many places around the world, it offered our house the opportunity to entertain a number of different cultures and personalities. Full of energy as always, we watched 24 boys slowly become 24 young men and with that transformation comes a few lows, but many, many more positive experiences. This group of boys showed throughout the year how much success that a positive attitude and hard work can bring and we are very proud of the many accomplishments they achieved. From athletic awards, to Duke of Ed Awards, to high academic standards and results, the boys of Grier South become young leaders without perhaps even realizing it. For those boys moving on, we wish you all the best wherever you end up, be it at another residence at BCS or back in your home country. For those returning next year, we wish you a great summer and look forward to seeing you in September ready to start another awesome year. Our best wishes and sincere thanks to our Duty team as well for their continued support, time and effort... enjoy lots of rest this summer!

- Best regards, Shelley & Jeff

ROUND SQUARE

Round Square is a huge part of our life at BCS. Each year, this diverse program offers students the opportunity to build skills, explore the world and help others through service projects, school exchanges and international conferences.

2015-16 was a busy year for our Round Square Committee. We are proud of their participation in the following initiatives.

Conferences

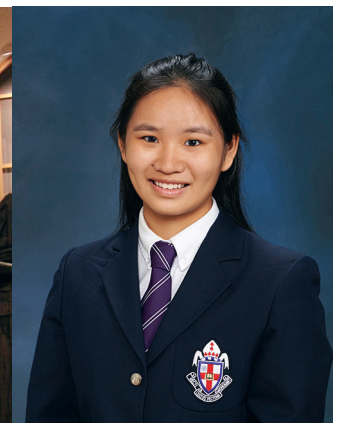

Senior Conference at Chadwick School in California, U.S. It was attended by Erfan Li, Jie Hou, Rui Shi, & Muxian Chen.

International Conference at the United World College of Southeast Asia in Singapore. It was attended by Kyla Pascale-Blanchard, Yuetong Ling, & Yu-Liang Chen.

There was no Junior Conference this year.

Our GAP student this year was Joel Wilkinson.
Our exchanges were:
Yuhong (Krystal) Zuo to Gordonstoun School in Scotland.
Georgia Fraser-Peters from Gordonstoun School in Scotland.
Jessica Pigeon to Bunbury Senior High School in Australia.

Prefects

Michelle is a fantastically talented person. She can sing, act, and dance (#socials) better than most people I know.
Even with all that talent, she remains someone who is caring, funny and outgoing. You have been a great prefect and an even better friend!

Paul the movie enthusiast.
He could make any one laugh.
His impressions are the funniest around.
He is a truly funny guy & good prefect.

He is known by many names.
B-dong, Barts, The Dong, Ding Dong, and Barton.
Although very shy, Barton is an enjoyable guy to work with. I loved being with him throughout the past two years. Good luck achieving your PhD and I hope you find a girl who has hers as well.

So uhh, we did a draw for who would write about who, and I kinda got myself so uh, here goes: I was a pleasure to work with. I was absolutely amazing, hardworking, always coming up with great ideas, and I was just a genuinely terrific, all-around superstar. Everyone loves me, I'm the best, so yeah, go me.

Rebecca is an inspiration to work with. Her endless passion and willingness to take on new tasks highlights the exact qualities one would want to have on a team. Patient, caring, and willing to compromise, Rebecca Leblond, it has been a pleasure getting to work with you.

Mason, the friendliest guy I know
Always on the ice scoring many goals
He tries his hardest and goes with the flow and he has the sweetest heart of gold

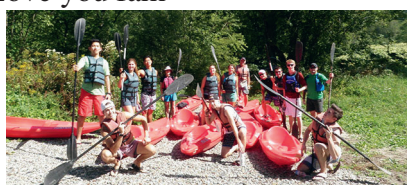

Smith House legend Patrick Zhu.
Never missed a chapel fist bump (with exceptions of extended Mtl weekends).
Cali boy and curling boss, there is no doubt Patty's presence will be hella missed.
Love you fam

Sam-I-am, our favourite Dr. Seuss character.
She's always willing to help people out and try new things.
She has a heart of gold, and she's special like a unicorn.
Samy Samsung is our crazy, caring friend,
Loved by all because of her awesomeness.

M is for majestic, has a presence.
A is for amiable, gets along with everyone
X is for...uh...crap.
Anyway, Max is probably the most likely for success in this school. He is an athlete, with a brain, which is really hard to come across. I wish him all the best with his promising future.

They say school is like toilet paper, you only miss it when it's gone. I sense you would definitely miss the good time at BCS which leave a legend called Victor Abraham. Great pleasure to work with you in our last year. Now you are ready to explore the real world. Way to go, bro!

Lifers

JONO

Rebe, Rabies, Shortbus, Robocco,

Ever since I first met you, you were an impact on my life. You've been my friend for longer than anyone else, and have stood by my side from the first day of form II until the final day of form VII. You've never failed to be there for me, even when I wasn't the nicest person to you, and there's no other person I wish I would have had as my friend through my time at BCS.

It hasn't been all cookies and milk though. You've broken into my house, almost killed me twice, embrassed me countless times, and have been my arch-nemesis when it comes to grades. Besides all the things I've mentioned, you've put me through hell and you know it, but I'd go through it all again to be able to spend 6 more years by your side.

There was a long time where I was in love with you. Like, really long time. But although I'm finally past that stage, and I'm no longer in love with you, I definitely haven't stopped loving you. You're definitely one of the most hardworking, intelligent, sociable people I know, and have a skillset that will get you far wherever you go in your life. You're a downright fantastic human being, and don't let anyone tell you otherwise.

I'm gonna miss you next year, but I know there's nothing that could get between us and stop us from continuing to be friends for the rest of our lives. I wish you luck in everything you do, but if that luck doesn't come, just give me a call and I'll be there instead, no matter how far I have to travel to get there.

Have a great life Rebecca, you deserve it more than you could ever imagine.

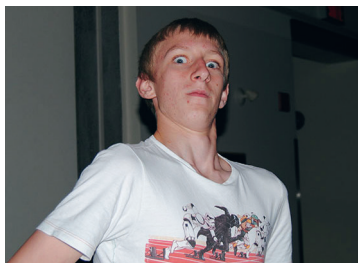

Love,
Jonnykins, Blondiebear, Condor

REBE

Jono, Jonnykins, Jo-ho, Blondiebear, j-hop,

For the last six years, you've been my rock. You listened to me when I needed to rant, let me into your house when I knocked on your door without notice, and didn't hate me when I accidentally almost killed you (twice).

We've been through a lot over our time at BCS, the jellyfish, the brothel, the knife incident, the roof, the prank, getting suspended, carrying the pancake mix up the mountain, that time I almost died with the rocks in Scotland, summer school, body blushing. I promise we'll continue to have more great times together in the future (okay, maybe those times I almost killed you weren't necessarily fun, but still). There's no way we'll drift apart and become virtual strangers. I won't let it (and you know me well enough to know I will go all the way to BCS just to annoy the crap out of you and force you to stay my friend). Come and visit me at Queen's or else

Good luck next year. I know BU is really far and all, so it'll be difficult to get used to distance like that. Remember, if you ever feel homesick, call me and I'll make fun of you & be there for you. Together, we'll find a way to cope and work things out.
In all honesty, though, you're one of the most incredible people I know. You're determined, kind, selfless, and caring, and anyone who doesn't realize that doesn't deserve to have you in their life. Keep being you, and I promise you'll do great things in life.

Also, if you haven't adopted a dog by the time I get back to the Eastern Townships for Thanksgiving, death threats may be issued. Love ya!

Love,
Your favourite person on the Earth ever
Rebe, Roxanne, Shortbus

PS. I couldn't find the courage to say it to your face, but you're looking pretty hot tonight.
P.P.S. I'm sorry! I had to.

Message From The Editor

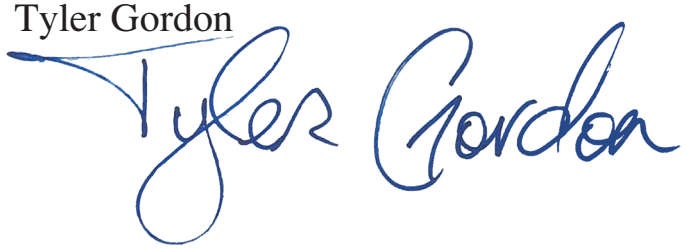

To the BCS Community,

A lot of work goes into creating the yearbook. It all starts with pictures, and the creative part of the project begins with the planning and designing of each page. Several months and countless hours go into the finished product that you hold. This album is made possible because of a handful of people that have worked on this project over the last year.

Therefore, I would first and foremost like to thank my Yearbook Committee for the hours that they took out of their schedule to create the 136 pages you have just seen. These students have shown impressive dedication and I am proud to have worked along side them. I would also like to thank all the Faculty and Staff that helped us through the process with their thoughts and opinions of various pieces of the book and for the many pictures that have been included. I have to thank our yearbook Representative Eric and the Friesens team for always being there to answer any question that we may have. It's been a great year working with you and I look forward to the years ahead. I would also like to thank Kat for being a Photoshop wizard and for offering her insight on layout and editing.

Lastly, I would like to thank Rebecca. I could not have asked for a better Senior Editor. Her dedication to this book exceeds any expectation; she was always there to give a helping hand. Whether it was with taking pictures, finishing and editing a page (from Europe no less) or getting information out to the committee. I wish her the best of luck for her future endeavors.

Thank you all once again!
Tyler Gordon
